Title of thesis

In response to the pandemic, SOAS Universities Doctoral School has put in place a number of mitigation arrangements to support PGR students and to help address the negative impact of the pandemic. The Doctoral School acknowledge the impact to workspaces or technical infrastructure, access to library materials has been severely restricted and fieldwork projects had to be interrupted or postponed.

In review of the Covid Mitigation policy the Doctoral School have issued the following solutions for 2020 and 2021 PhD intake cohorts :

- 2020 cohort: to be granted up to 2 terms extension, for a fee of £350, with the possibility of a third-term extension on request and with the expressed support of the supervisor, on a case-by-case basis.
- 2021 cohort: no extension, but the invitation for requests to be submitted by and with the support of the supervisor, again on a case-by-case basis. (If granted a fee of £350 is required for one term)

Before completing this form it is recommended that all candidates read the supporting guidance at: <https://www.soas.ac.uk/doctoral-school/mphil/phd-journey/when-things-are-not-going-planned/covid-mitigation-pgr>

SOAS requests contact details from all PhD finalists so that they can be reached after graduation for the purposes of gathering destination statistics for SOAS graduates and for future correspondence relating to their award.

The destination data (anonymised and treated in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998) is collected from all universities, as required by HESA (Higher Education Statistics Agency). Publicly available destination statistics can help prospective students decide where they would like to study and current students to make informed decisions about their career choices.

For the benefit of current and prospective SOAS students, SOAS Careers would like to use the contact data also for collecting case studies from PhD graduates. These case studies may be published on the SOAS website for inspiration to current and prospective students. We would not publish your contact details, but may publish other information which you provide, including your name, course title and year of graduation. Your information will be managed in accordance with SOAS Data Protection Policy (<https://www.soas.ac.uk/infocomp/dpa/policy/>).

Please indicate below whether you are happy to be contacted regarding the case studies: YES NO
