INTERCOLLEGIATE REGULATIONS:

1 - As a student from another University of London college you can register as an intercollegiate student at SOAS only if:

- you are currently registered for a University of London degree at a participating college and the course you wish to follow at SOAS will form part of your degree programme.
- permission for you to attend a course at SOAS is given by the appropriate academic authority at your home College.
- permission for you to attend a course at SOAS is given by the appropriate administrative authority at your home College to confirm that they will pay the tuition fee. Your College must indicate your tuition fee status - SOAS will assume and charge your College at the "Overseas" rate if no information is given. Fees are charged pro rata at the relevant standard SOAS undergraduate or Master's fees rate.

Please note that you must complete this application process before you begin your course at SOAS. A new form must be completed for each academic year.

You may only attend courses you have been registered for. Continued attendance is conditional upon your satisfactory academic performance and compliance with the School's regulations

UNDERTAKING TO COMPLY WITH THE ABOVE INTERCOLLEGIATE REGULATIONS

In submitting this form you are confirming that all information provided is correct and that you have read and agree to the SOAS intercollegiate regulations
